Both Sides Still Maintaining River Parley Authority

Californians and Nevadans May Ponder Question

Little New Information Now Available at Phoenix

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
PHOENIX, July 23.—Declaration made by Gov. G. W. P. Hunt that he will refuse to sign any executive order to the legislature committing to the seven-State Colorado River conference has added little to local information on the controversial subject. The Governor has reiterated his declaration that he vetoed the legislative resolution in which the congressional committee this because it sought to trespass upon his constitutional prerogatives. He asserts that it was he who should have named the members of the committee to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House. It happens, also, that he is against ratification of the Colorado River compact, something toward which the resolution trended.

On the other hand, legislators aver that the Governor has merely "butted in" where he had no business. They insist that the compact was a question to be placed solely up to the legislatures of the seven States affected, with the Governor in each case to be considered. It is asserted that had the Arizona Legislature approved the compact the issue would have been considered completed, whatever protests made by Hunt, and that Congress would have taken it up for itself. The committee to be had between legislators of the three lower basin States is considered merely aつなぎ leading to ratification.

GOVERNOR PROTESTS
The Winsor substitute for the Wisconsin-Minnesota resolution approving the Colorado River compact was put through on March 11, last, in the late legislative session, the Senate voting 15 to 4 and the house 28 to 15. The Governor signed the bill, but did not protest. That evening he is reported to have made personal demand upon Secretary of State J. H. Kerby for the original resolution. Kerby had it sent to the Governor the following day. Kerby sent over to him eight certified copies of the resolution for transmission to the other six States and to Congress, as an official record of the action taken in accordance with the wording of the compact, which made each Governor the vehicle of such information, with assumption that it would be of value to him. Hunt seized the opportunity to veto the file copy and the others are assumed to be resting in some drawer in his office.

The radio sets are claimed to have been a mere pro-forma duty is not believed material in the main issue, even though he quoted the State constitution that "the Governor has the power to communicate with the other organs of communication between this State and the government of any other State of the United States."

In respect to this, President Muller, of Winsor, of the State Senate, observed: "The Governor did not propose to co-operate, but to take charge. The question of legality of the 'veto' or of the legislative committee's statement of its intent and of no consequence, for the whole matter will have to be submitted to the next Legislature. The Arizona legislative committee is not bound to the Governor's appointment of a committee, or of as many committees as he may choose. The legislative committee will be pleased to confer with立法者es from California and Nevada. If the Governor of Arizona persists in refusing to act as the official organ of communication, the necessary arrangements can be effected in due time.

Should there be payment of necessary expenses out of the legislative fund, as authorized by the resolution, he, obstructed by the Governor's action, will be compelled to meet with a committee that has been picked by the Governor, wholly of anticompany individuals, possibly not legitimate. The question may be thrashed out by the Californians and Nevadans before they enter Arizona, for there must be decision for or against the Governor's stand.

Parley Date

Gov. Richardson has announced that the California legislators will be here Aug. 10, and there is assumption that the Nevada representatives will join. They will be met with declaration that the Governor of Arizona has denied the legality of the Arizona legislative action upon which the representatives based, and that the commissioners selected by the presiding officers of the Arizona Legislature, therefore, have no legal standing. Possible they will all be met with a committee that has been picked by the Governor, wholly of anticompany individuals, possibly not legitimate.

The question may be thrashed out by the Californians and Nevadans before they enter Arizona, for there must be decision for or against the Governor's stand.

Packages From Japan Opened at Canadian Ports

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
VANCOUVER (B. C.) July 23.—Canadian customs officials are kept busy opening all packages from Japan on order from the government at Ottawa, having placed an embargo on all goods coming in from Japan packed in fodder.

The embargo is the result of an outbreak of puer-pneumonia in Japan.

The restrictions are for one month and all goods packed in fodder must be returned to Japan. This includes the freight brought by the Empress of Asia and while the Japanese freight is light it is giving the customs officials much trouble to find out whether the goods inside the packages are in fodder or not, as the consignee does not know.

ICE SHIPPED TO PHOENIX

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
TUCSON (Ariz.) July 23.—Large shipments of ice are being made from a plant to Phoenix and many other Arizona points. The Phoenix shipments are to help in refrigeration of the cantaloupe shipments, which are almost beyond supplying by the ice plants of the capital city.

LOCAL LAUGHS

Each week The Times produces a fun column "Local Laughs" consisting of the fifteen best jokes submitted by local people. Weekly prizes are paid of $1.00, and twelve of $1 each. The list of theaters showing the film, together with the names of the stars, will be given in the column. The names and addresses of writers, appear only on the screen. The jokes receiving honorable mention will be given a place of honor on The Times column "Local Laughs," and each of those contributors will receive a souvenir of acknowledgement.

"What caused Van's social downfall?"
"Oh, he went riding in Mrs. Lincoln's twin six and when it stalled he looked under the seat for the cause."

Mile-High Trackfest Carded for Tomorrow

CHAMPIONSHIPS AT ARROWHEAD

Women's Teams Compete at Lake Tomorrow Afternoon

Pasadena Athletic Club Squad Enters Competition

Great Altitude Will Cut Down Times in Events

Before-breakfast workouts were held by two score girls athletes this morning in preparation for the women's national championship "mile-high" track and field meet scheduled for Lake Arrowhead tomorrow afternoon. The meet will start at 2 o'clock. The champion-ships can be broken out by girls competing under the same conditions of altitude. The high air is expected to slow down most of the athletes, although entries from Arrowhead and San Bernardino have been participating at the lake, hoping to pile up an edge on their lowland sisters.

The track and field have been specially constructed for tomorrow's meet, and L.A.C. officials, after checking up on the distance yesterday afternoon, pronounced the meet in the best of shape.

WEAVER REFEREE

Bob Weaver will referee the affair. Other officials: Owen Bird, manager; Lannie Feagan, Arthur Allen, and Aileen Allen, timers; Tom Williams, referee; and Arnold, judges of finish, and Doc Powers, clerk of course.

The largest squad at the meet will be entered by the Pasadena Athletic Club, and will include the national champion ship relay squad. The entries: Nellie Dorschel, Elizabeth Nelson, Alice Rydes, Ethel Nichols, Elvira Peterson, Lillian Copeland, Maylene Clegg, Alice Johnson, Grace, Bee Palmer, Alice Williams, Kay Chase, Verna Heidorn, Kafe Moore, Maxine Dorschel, Lois Meister, Helen Schwartz, Irma Young, Catherine Mene, Anna Madsen, Irene Ladd, and besides these, individual entries from Los Angeles, Long Beach and other local cities will compete.

TO AWARD TITLES

"Mile high" championships will be awarded in the following events: 25-yard dash, 50-yard dash, 75-yard dash, 100-yard dash, 60-yard hurdle, 200-yard dash, high jump, throw, discus, shot-put, baseball, throw, basketball, high jump and broad jump.

A special grand stand has been constructed at the lake, and the roads at the lake have been posted with directions.

by shipping companies. Another telegram was also sent to northern juries officials telling them to get into immediate touch with Commodore Ben Weston and Syl Spalding, to all of the California Yacht Club, who are in San Francisco, to all the Debras for the San Francisco Perpetual Cup Sunday.

In a few words Dickensheets explained that San Francisco interests had arranged to have the San Francisco Bay and Harbor region the Mecca for hundreds of sporting events. Motor-boat, sailing, and cruising races will be held. Many of Uncle Sam's war ships will be on hand alongside those of John Bull's and other nations. A "Parade of Lights" will also be held on the harbor one night during the week of the races, in which all boats will participate.

Dickensheets expects to remain at the Biltmore until Saturday or Sunday and possibly longer. In the meantime he hopes to interview many of the local clubs and representatives of the 121 Hydroplane Association.

ally wore the latter down finally, but he won.

Al Boffert and Bert Simmons, a couple of wild-swinging heavy-weights, provided the fans with the kick of the evening in their bungling bout. After being knocked down and apparently out on his feet, Boffert landed one on Simmons' chin to score knockout in the second round. Boffert, who had to hang on to the ropes while Simmons was being counted out.

Chat Gleason made quick work of J. Livermore, knocking out the Livermore in the first round. In the other bouts Mickey Merlin won over Sammy Rothstein after three fast rounds, while Sidney Rockwood rocked Ovidia Seiden to sleep in the first, the referee stopping the bout.

TWILIGHT POLOISTS THRILL THOUSANDS

Hollywood Height's Polo and Hunt Club Juniors swung a lot of wicked mallets to trim the senior representatives 3 to 2 last night, before a crowd modestly estimated at more than 2,000 people, in the spacious polo arena to gaze expectantly at the whirling equestrians. Frank Foster, dashing junior, carried the attack through and around the moon-bathed seniors.

BREEDS MOST WINNERS

John E. Madden of Lexington has probably bred more turf horses than any other in the world. In eight years thoroughbreds from his Hamburg Place establishment have been in 2,698 races, including five Derbys.

CANOISTS IN REGATTA

The American Canoe Association, eastern division, will hold its forty-third annual regatta at the lake, and meet at Onset, July 24 to 26. It will be held under the auspices of the Samoset Canoe Club of Boston.

RABBIT PUNCHES

BY PAUL LOWRY

THE local eight populous is becoming quite agitated about the forthcoming battle between Eddie Hoffman and Bert Collier in the open air at Vernon next Tuesday night. It is agitated because the battle will either confirm or deny the suspicion that Hoffman is nothing but a false alarm.

Those who like Hoffman point out that he has won all his fights, including scrapes with chaps like Capt. Bob Roper, Jimmy Delaney, Tony Quinn, and Floyd Johnson. Quite a record, don't you think, for a fellow who has just turned 26?

Those who like Collier say the Mexican is to do. They are clever that Hoffman will never lay a glove on the pride of Whistler. The hand that started the soup bowl will never be broken, according to the Mexican's backers.

Among the disquieting features of the anti-Hoffman propaganda is a dundum blow from the lettering-heavy weight Collier. Bert Collier alleges and sets forth that Hoffman never won from him in the Northwest, as he has won from him in the past, and that Hoffman's record is not as good as he claims.

Adding insult to injury, the captain says all you have to do to find out who won is to ask Hoffman himself. He admits he beat the ex-soldier.

That discounds one victory for Hoffman. The rest of 'em depends on the Vernon ring with the exception of the Deneau win, which occurred at the same place as the Roper conquest—in the Northwest. However, the captain has nothing to say about the Delaney affair.

Hoffman beat Fannie in a bone-fide battle, but a few days later was licked by Jack Lee in six rounds. Lee is a power who fought the curtain raiser, the mid-fight, and the finale in the main event at Vernon.

Hoffman later reversed the verdict, when Lee was beaten by any convincing or commanding margin. So that leaves only old Floyd Johnson to go on. Floyd was good once, but that was a long time ago.

We may be all wrong about Hoffman. We're willing to be shown, and, inasmuch as we sort of respect him, we can't blame us for shouting for Collier to knock the master's head off next Tuesday.

We know, however, that Hoffman is on his last chin, and we have seen him go down with a thud, so we rather expect the bronze warrior of Whistler to hit him there with some gusto.

And incidentally we're surprised if Collier doesn't outlast him for the count. We have, however, the word against our good little friend Hoffman, who handles Hoffman, but we just can't make out that good clever boy like Collier, in all probability, will be the twelve-pound weight advantage.

Of course smart boxing men like Eddie Sears, for example, tell us that if Hoffman gets by the first rounds he is certain to win, and that Hoffman will rebound to his advantage.

Maybe so, but we are still unconvinced.

This is the kind of a fight that has everybody worried. It isn't for a championship, but it is a whale of a bout, nevertheless.

Tommy O'Brien is going to be one of the busiest fighting persons in Los Angeles, if he can get the chance. Joe Levy, his handsome manager, is lining up for him. Joe practically has him booked for Hollywood a week from tonight.

Don Davis, who is at Vernon next month, so does the new Olympic Club.

And Dick Donald is doing his best and cook up another O'Brien-Hoffman match in a semi-wind-up attraction to the Frankie Gensu-Fidel La Barba championship for the Southern title at Acme.

In addition, the Southern Francisco promoters are after Tommy hot and heavy for battles in that section. In fact, the young man is so popular, he probably isn't the least doubt in the world he was what he was about when he grabbed the man who made Mexican Joe Rivers famous to handle his affairs.

BEAVERS GET PLAYER OUT OF GRANDSTAND

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE

NEW YORK, July 22.—Triumphant in hard-fought tennis matches for Dr. George King, Elliott H. Binsen, Herbert L. Bowman and Cecil Donaldson today narrowed the field in the metropolitan tennis championship to eight survivors.

Donaldson defeated Hugh Kelleher, 4-6, 6-7, 5-7; Dr. King defeated Zenz Shimizu, 6-4, 6-4; Binsen overcame Percy Knaston, 6-7, 8-6, and Bowman won from Frederick C. Baggs, 6-2, 6-3.

Ray Casey of California played his first match on an eastern court and won it, defeating V. V. Nichols in doubles. They had little opposition in their opening tilt, but in the second Elliott Binsen and Fred C. Baggs excelled them to win, 6-1, 6-1. Having had little practice since his arrival from England, the Californian stroked rather erratically today.

KID ESAU WINS OVER MARTINEZ AT ARMORY

Kid Esau won over Sally Martinez after ten rounds of jousting in the main event at the Armory last night. In the semi-wind-up, Kid Esau was handed an unpopular decision over Joe Baker. The fans thought Baker should have won, and the referee was given a riotous ovation.

In the other bouts Joe Leal got a technical knockout over Jimmy Barnes in the second round, while Enciso beat Young Deever, and Ernie Smith won over Sailor Santos.

BOND QUOTATIONS

TRADING LAGS

NEW YORK, July 23.—Activity of the stock and cotton market today diverted attention from bond trading and prices continued to fluctuate in lifeless fashion. Liquidation of investment holdings by banks in anticipation of a wider demand for funds for trade and crop-moving purposes was reported to be at a standstill. There had little effect on price movements.

The tendency to unload high-grade bonds was reflected in the selling of United States government bonds.

Prices are registered, but for short periods on the New York Stock Exchange. The market is not yet fully developed and is not yet fully developed. The market is not yet fully developed.
